6 (1) Development and loss of habitat in the vi-

12 of the Department of Defense, and in particular the 16 fective in addressing this threat to readiness with re-

17 gard to a number of important installations, ranges,
18 and airspace.

19 (3) The opportunities to take effective action to 20 protect installations, ranges, and airspace from en-21 croachment is in many cases transient, and delay in 22 taking action will result in either higher costs or per-
23 manent loss of the opportunity effectively to address
24 encroachment.

1 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
2 gress that the Department of Defense should—

3 (1) develop additional policy guidance on the 6 additional emphasis on protecting biodiversity and 7 on further refining procedures;

8 (2) give greater emphasis to effective coopera-

10 with other Federal agencies charged with managing 11 Federal land; and

12 (3) ensure that each military department takes 13 full advantage of the authorities provided by section
